
How to Apply for BC Medical Services Plan (MSP)

All eligible residents who are living in British Columbia for 6 months or longer, including international students, are required to enroll in the BC MSP Plan. You are recommended to enroll as soon as you arrive in BC.

The BC MSP Plan is effective on the fourth month of a newcomer's arrival in BC. To cover the MSP waiting period, international students must obtain private medical insurance for the first three months of their arrival in Canada. At VCC, we enroll new international students in the ~~gib~~ ~~gib~~ They are both parts of the basic medical insurance, covering most hospital-required services while you live in BC.
